

NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

Discrimination is against the law. The Contra Costa Mental Health Plan (CCMHP) follows state and federal civil rights laws. CCMHP does not unlawfully discriminate, exclude people, or treat them differently because of sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, ethnic group identification, age, mental disability, physical disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, gender, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

CCMHP provides:

- Free aids and services to people with disabilities to help them communicate better, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact the Access Line at 1-888-678-7277, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week . Or, if you cannot hear or speak well, please call 711 and the information will be made available.

On how to file a grievance, refer to the Beneficiary Handbook.
